Effective Communication for Colleges
Clarice Pennebaker . . .
Fifth Eleventh Edition 2007 Paperback

Communication skills begin by creating, as far as possible, the right environment for women and their partners ensuring privacy and comfort so that nothing inhibits dialogue. Listening must be active - it includes non-verbal components of communication, such as body language, maintenance of eye contact and looking for incongruence between the verbal and non-verbal behaviour (Rogers, 1980).
