Level 4 Virus Hunters of the CDC is their story. It is an intense, personal account of more than a quarter of a century on the front lines - in the ultra high-tech "hot zone" lab that McCormick was instrumental in creating at the Centre for Disease Control in Atlanta, as well as in the most primitive places on the planet, where the local climate, terrain and politics can kill as easily as any disease.

These Level 4 killers are not new, their emergence is primarily the result of humans venturing where they have never been, or interacting with the environment in a novel manner. The book eloquently explains that these viruses are not lurking waiting to pounce on the first person that passes by; rather they exist in a biological balance with their natural host, until disturbed.
